Thalapathi ringtones songs free download

By David Weedmark Using the ability to edit songs in iTunes, you can convert any song into a personal ringtone for your iPhone. All you have to do is create a copy of your favorite track and then tweak it a bit to make it into an iPhone ringtone you can use. Ringtones must be 30 seconds or less, so you'll have to choose which part of the song you want to use. Start iTunes. If prompted, sign in with the same Apple ID and password you use for your iPhone. Drag the music file to the iTunes Music library, or press Ctrl-O to import it. Locate songs in your music library or playlist. Right-click the file name and select Get Info. Click the Options tab in the window that opens. Click the check box next to Start time and Stop time of the song and change the time it takes for a song to be 30 seconds or more. If you want to start a one-minute song, change Start Time to 1:00 and Stop Time to 1:30. Click OK. Right-click the song again. This time, select Create an AAC version to make a copy of your song in AAC format. If you don't see this option, you'll need to change your iTunes options (see next step). A duplicate 30-second version of the song appears in the music library below the original. If you don't have the option to create an AAC version of the song, press Ctrl-B to display the iTunes Menu bar. Then select Options from the Edit menu and click the Import settings button on the General tab. Click the Import menu using and select AAC Encoding. Click OK twice to close the Options window. Right-click your original song file -- the file is still visible full-time -- and select Get info again. Highlight and delete Start Time and Stop Time, and then click OK. Open Windows Control Panel, select Appearance and Personalization, and then click Folder Options. Click the View tab, and then clear the check box next to Hide extensions for known file types. You need to be able to view the song's file extension to turn it into a ringtone file. Right-click the 30-second AAC version of the song in iTunes and select Open in Windows Explorer. Right-click the file in Windows Explorer and choose Rename. Highlight the user's .mp3 and replace it with the .m4r file extension used for ringtones. Press Enter. Click the menu button in the upper-left corner of iTunes, which says Music and selects Tone. Your new ringtone appears on this page, inging that you changed the file extension correctly. Connect your iPhone to your computer using a USB cable. Select your iPhone when iPhone appears at the top right of the iTunes window. Click the Tones tab, and then click the Sync Tone button. Click Apply, and then Sync After sync is complete, close iTunes and disconnect the USB cable. Launch Settings from the iPhone home screen. Scroll down and tap Sound. Down again and tap Ringtones. You can Choose your custom ringtone from the list of available options. Free ringtones are a great way to add some fun and personality to your phone without having to spend your hard earned money on more phone accessories. Using the site below, you will be able to get some free ringtones downloaded to your phone in minutes, and some even allow you to create your own ringtones. There are a variety of free ringtones available from each of these sites including music, sound effects, movies and TV clips, funny sounds, message sounds and anything else you might want to have on your phone. These free ringtone loading sites all have different features that make them unique, so be sure to check each one until you find your favorites. Not every ringtone site is legal, and even legitimate sites sometimes have music copyrights. If you see ringtones from a modern, popular song, it's more likely copyrighted and illegal to download. Ringtone sites allow you to download audio files directly from their website. In most cases, audio files have been prepared as ringtone files for you so that all you have to do is put ringtones on your phone to use it. However, not all phones make the transfer easy. In fact, only Android devices, such as phones from Samsung, Google, etc., can download ringtones directly to the device. For iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch devices, you must first download the ringtone to your computer and then switch from computer to phone. You can do it with iTunes. To download ringtones to an Android or BlackBerry device, select the MP3 option on the ringtone website. If you're going to use ringtones on an iOS device, download the M4R version of the ringtone. Learn how to change your Android ringtone or how to choose another iPhone ringtone to actually use the ringtones you download. If the ringtone website offers ringtones in audio format that your phone doesn't recognize as a ringtone file, your phone might store it as a song instead of a ringtone. You can use a free audio conversion program like FileZigZag to save ringtones in a format that can be used on your phone. Some of these audio file downloads will play automatically in your browser and won't prompt you to download ringtones to your computer. If that happens, right-click the file and choose to save it so you can choose where it will be downloaded on your computer. Zedge has a huge collection of free ringtones that you can browse by sound and popular search. Category helps you find free ringtones related to animal sounds, side sounds, alarm sounds Cat sounds, game sounds, and more. Zedge really excelled at having some great sound effects and movie clip ringtones. Select the ringtone to preview the ringtone and use the download button to place the ringtone on your device. Android users can install the ZEDGE app to download ringtones. More than 25 completely free ringtones are available at Tones7. You can find both MP3 and M4R M4R here, which means they work on iPhones, iPads, Android and other devices. Each download page allows you to listen to the ringtone and view its details, such as file size, number of downloads, descriptions, categories, and user comments. The list of the most popular ringtones on Tones7 is a great place to start if you're not sure which genre to choose. They also have a page for newly added ringtones. Mobile9 has you enter your device type before you even get free ringtones. This means that once you are in, everything you are watching is going to be compatible with your phone. You can search through mobile9's free ringtones by what's hot, new or tagged as the best of them all. There is also a filter you can use to show only free ringtones according to the category they are in, like oldies, Spanish, funny, SMS, and many others. Family filters can also be turned on and off. Most of the favorite ringtones at mobile9 include sound effects, movie clips and original music. Once you've listened to ringtones you like, you can download or send ringtones to your device (if your device is capable of downloading directly). The premium mobile9 plan lets you skip the waiting time. There's a Windows 8 mobile app for mobile that you can download for free. Mobile9 phone picker doesn't include a new phone number, but that doesn't mean ringtones won't work for those devices. Just choose a phone of the same brand to get compatible ringtones. Like some other ringtone sites from this list, Melofania allows you to edit your own music files to create custom ringtones, as well as simply download ringtones created by other users. The ringtone player is really easy to use because you can drag the clip around the music file, selecting exactly which part of the song should be made up of ringtones. In addition to creating your own ringtones, you can search for or browse through ringtones created by others such as artist names or in a section just for featured ringtones. If you're not sure where to start, check out the top ringtones downloaded at Melofania. When you're ready to download ringtones from Melofania, you can choose which of the two file types will work with iPhone, Android, and other phones. CellBeat is another free ringtone download site that has a lot of options. Some categories include classic(classical, disco(alternative, funky), Indian pop games (Indian pop) latin (Latin) and jazz (jazz) and electronica (electronic music). Ringtones can be previewed on the website, and you can see when they're uploaded, the number of downloads received, the length and size of files, and more. CellBeat has different links to help with the search Your next favorite ringtone is easy, such as recent ringtones, the most downloaded ringtones, and the highest ranked ringtone sites. On the ringtone download page are two links: one for iPhone and one for Android. MyTinyPhone has over half a million free ringtones that you can browse by genre, extra day, and popularity, and there are plenty of ways to download them. After you find out you want, you can send it to your phone as an attachment or URL, saved to your computer as an MP3, or downloaded as an M4R file for use on an iOS device. If you've used MyTinyPhone before, you might like the new ringtone section to find the latest additions. The most popular ringtone area is also very interesting. If you sign up for a free account at MyTinyPhone, you can upload your own MP3s to turn them into ringtones. In doing so, you have the option to keep the ringtone private or share it with other MyTinyPhone users. If you're using an Android device, you can use the MyTinyPhone mobile app to download ringtones for free. A great place to get free ringtones for your phone or tablet is Itunemachine. The huge variety of ringtones will make finding your next favorite tune easy, plus have a list of their best ringtones to easily pick and a new ringtone page for a fresh list. Each ringtone has a preview button that you can use to quickly listen to ringtones before saving. You can do this from the tones list, so it's quick and easy to preview one after another. Another huge unique feature that you get with this ringtone site is the possibility of having your name included in the ringtone. Select your voice and language, and then type your name before downloading the ringtone. The message is said to also be edited and it can also be used for text. Download ringtones here available for iPhone and other devices like Android, BlackBerry, etc. You can get MP3 or M4R ringtones. Mobiles24 is another source of ringtones. You have access to over 130,000 ringtone downloads. Like most websites that load ringtones, you can preview sounds before saving them. When it's time to pick up the ringtone, you can choose which version works for Android and other phones, and the version that can be used on iPhone. An app is available for Android users. The free ringtones at Tone7tweet are available as a large list you can move through, or you can search through them by keyword. There are also separate categories of ringtone downloads, such as Rock, Games, Funky, Christmas, Halloween, Message, Animals and Marimba. These free ringtones can be sorted by popularity, the latest ringtones added to the site, and average ratings. When you decide which ringtone you want to use for your device, you can preview the audio and see how many downloads have been received so far. There are two download links on each download page, but only mp3 seems to work continuously. Sometimes all you really need is a simple notification sound, the one you can find at this ringtone site aptly called Sound Notifications. Some of the Free ringtones including Sound Effects, Humor, Christmas Ringtones, Animals, Waking Ringtones and Mini Ringtones. When downloading ringtones, you can choose from MP3, M4R and OGG. Ringer doesn't provide ringtones for you to browse and download. Instead, it is merely a ringtone manufacturer that allows audio files to upload to the website and edit. You can upload MP3, WAV, WMA, and some other types of audio files. The ringtone you make at Ringer can be any length, and choosing from an audio file is really easy to manipulate by dragging the edges of the selection or selecting the exact time the ringtone will start and finish. The bell also allows you to adjust the volume of the ringtone before downloading. When you're done, simply select the format to save as (MP3 or M4R) and then select the MAKE RINGTONE button for Ringer to adjust the audio file as you specified so you can download it to your computer. The uploaded files will be deleted Ringer.org after an hour. Thank you for let us know! Tell us why! Why!
